Captain Charles F. Taylor, for many years a member of the Board of Fire Commissioners, and recently its chairman, was indorsed for re-election by a caucus of the Madison Ward delegation in the City Council held at Murphy's flotel yesterday afternoon. The election will be for a period of six years, and will be at the hands of a joint session of the two branches of the City Council called for next Monday night, just preceding the monthly meeting of the Common Council.

There has been some opposition to Captain Taylor for some time past, both in and out of the Council, a recent annual report submitted by him to the Mayor and found not to be at all in accompanying reports of the Fire Chief and head of the Fire Alarm Department, having led many to believe that some new blood should be injected into the Fire Board. George H. M. Keesee, assistant cashier of the Merchants National Bank, has been mentioned as a receptive candidate, but in view of the action of the ward delegation, it is not probable that his name will be placed before the joint session. The caucus also indorsed Dr. M. D. Hoge for re-election as a member of the Board of Health. It has been stated that the Clay Ward delegation would put forward the name of Dr. C. Howard Lewis, of 2527 West Main Street. The Health Board is not elected by wards, but as it happens its members are well scattered over the city. Mr. Phillips lives in Clay Ward. Dr. Oppenhimer, the president, lives now in Madison, but will seen move into Lee Ward, and the Madison Ward delegation felt that that ward should not be left without representation, and so went on record as unanimously recommending the re-election of Dr. Hoge, who has served on the Board of Health since it was reorganized.

CENTRAL NATIONAL BANK PAYS 1 1-2 PER CENT DIVIDEND

Directors of the Central National
Bank have declared a semiannual dividend of 1 1-2 per cent on a capital stock of $350,000, the dividend amounting to $5,250. In the list of all bank dividends printed in The Times-Dispatch on Sunday there was an error in reference to the Central National, the statement being erroneously printed that the dividend was 1 and 1-4 per cont on a capital of $250,000. The present capital of the bank is $350,000, and on this stock the bank paid a dividend of 1 1-2 per cent. The record is considered unusually good and shows a prosperous condition.

CHESTERMAN WINS

After Night Session Jury Decides for Plaintiff.

After a session lasting until nearly midnight, a jury in the City Circuit Court lest night brought in a verdict of damages in the sum of $2.919.57 in the suit of W. A. Chesterman against John G. Scott, executor of the estate of William H. Scott. The case had been on trial for several days, and had been partly argued yesterday afternoon, when both attorneys and jurors expressed a desire for a night session so as to push the matter to a conclusion The case was submitted to the jury shortly after 10 c'clock, and after being out about an hour? and a half the jury reported its verdict. The usual motion to set aside the verdict as contrary to the law and evidence was made and continued.

The litigation grew out of the erection of a row of stores by W. A. Chesterman as contractor for the Scott estate, at the corner of Sixth and Marshall Streets. The Scott estate refused to make the final payment, and Mr. Chesterman brought suit, the jury sustaining his contention.
